

THE GREAT TREE

Daniel 4

Introduction

The great king of Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar, was acquainted with many gods, including Daniel's God. But with his acquaintance with all these gods, Nebuchadnezzar was still, in essence, worshipping himself and living in sin. He was a very proud man, so God confronted him with his selfishness and sinfulness. He warned him of impending judgment, gave him an opportunity to repent, and when he refused, God sent His judgment on him. Only then did the proud king submit himself to God's power and authority and testify of it before the world.

Aim of the Lesson

See the immorality and penalty of pride, confess it and submit to God's power and authority over your life.
"Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time" (1 Peter 5:6).
