

DANIEL'S POWERFUL PRAYER

Daniel 9:1-23

Introduction

When this chapter begins, the Babylonian Kingdom has just ended and Daniel has begun to live under the new rule of the Medo-Persians. Cyrus appointed Darius to rule over Babylon and the events of chapter nine occur during Darius' first year as king (538 BC). It appears that Darius had already chosen Daniel to be one of three presidents to assist him in ruling over 120 princes, but he had not yet been cast into the lions' den (Dan 6). Darius was impressed with Daniel's trustworthy and excellent spirit so he determined to place him over all the other officials. This is what caused the other two presidents and the princes to be jealous of Daniel so that they devised a scheme to get rid of Daniel by having him cast into the lions' den.

About thirteen years had elapsed since Daniel received the vision about the ram and male goat (Dan 8). God provided Daniel opportunities to serve in kings' courts and gave him several visions because he had an excellent spirit. The essential qualities of Daniel's life, which produced in him such a godly testimony, are brought to light in this chapter. Through the prayer of Daniel in this chapter, three aspects of his godly character are seen, which are the basis for the godly life of any believer.

The aim of this lesson: Follow the example of Daniel for living a godly life.

"Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ" (1 Cor 11:1).
