

CHRIST IS SUPERIOR TO AARON

Aim of the Lesson: To see the superiority of Jesus Christ as our great high priest and what it means to us.

AARON AS A PRIEST – 5:1-4

1. Called a high priest
2. Ministers on earth
3. Man – Sons of Aaron

CHRIST AS A PRIEST – 4:14-16; 5:5-10

1. Called the great high priest [4:14]
Only Christ is called the great high priest.
2. Ministers in heaven [4:14]
Christ ministers at the right hand of the Father.
3. God/man – Jesus, the Son of God [4:14]
As God and man, He is the perfect Mediator

Therefore, “Let us hold fast our confession” [4:14].

Christ was tempted, but never yielded. He felt the full force of a temptation by not sinning than if He had given in to sin. So He knows how a sinner feels when tempted. 5. Was tempted in all areas [4:15]
Christ personally knows the lure of every temptation. |

DIVINE REQUIREMENTS FOR A HIGH PRIEST

Hebrews 5:1-10; cf. 2:9-18; 4:14-16

AARON'S PRIESTHOOD

1. A man – “taken from among men” [5:1]
2. Serve people for God [5:1]
3. Offer gifts & sacrifices for people's sins [5:1]
4. Have compassion with sinners [5:2]
5. Offer sacrifices for his own sins [5:3]
6. Called of God (only Aaron) [5:4]

CHRIST'S PRIESTHOOD

1. A man – “made like His brethren” [2:17; 4:14]
Christ is a human being like us, but without sin.
2. Serves people faithfully for God [4:15-16]
Shows mercy when we sin; gives grace for our needs
3. Offered Himself for every man's sin [2:9-15]
He died for all to save all that take His payment for sin.
4. Sympathizes and helps sinners [2:17-18; 4:15]
Christ knows us and gently cares for those in trouble.
5. Was without sin; was made perfect [4:15; 5:7-9]
He suffered to be perfect and be the Author of salvation.
6. Called of God after His resurrection [5:5, 6, 10]
 - a. God called Him “My Son,” when He resurrected Him to be King of all nations [5:5; Ps 2:6-9; Acts 13:33].
 - b. Was made a priest of the Melchisedec order, a royal and an eternal priesthood [5:6]—better than Aaron's.
7. Made effective petitions to God [5:7]
His prayer was heard: He was raised from the dead.
8. Obedied God to be a perfect Savior-Priest [5:8-9]
His obedience allowed Him to save us and help us.
