

CHRIST'S PERFECTION IN THE BELIEVER

Introduction: The key thought of this chapter is Christ's perfection in the believer. The "mark" (or goal) of the believer is the perfection of Jesus Christ in his own life. This goal cannot be fully reached until "the high calling of God in Christ Jesus," which is also known as the resurrection of the believers (3:14). This perfection is only possible by personally knowing Jesus Christ in His resurrection, in His sufferings, and in His death (3:10).

Lesson Aim: Challenge each believer to strive to be perfect in Christ Jesus.

Verse: "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (3:14).
