

JESUS CHRIST EXAMINES THREE MORE CHURCHES

Introduction

This chapter concludes Christ's examination of the seven churches in Asia Minor with a report on the spiritual condition of the last three churches. The church in Sardis had a reputation of being alive, but she was dead spiritually. She represents churches that are active with programs in community affairs, but the light of the Gospel barely shines from her. The church in Philadelphia was commended for her faithful testimony of Jesus Christ. She represents the churches that are telling the good news about salvation in Jesus Christ. Laodicea was condemned for her confidence in the things of the world to satisfy her spiritual needs. She represents the churches that depend on wealth, health and physical goods for security. Christ's report on His examination of the seven churches is a clear message on how He will judge all churches and the members in these churches.

Aim of the Lesson: Learn what Christ expects from His churches and what He promises to the overcomers.

He that has an ear let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches (Rev 3:22)
