

SIX TRUMPET JUDGMENTS

Introduction

Revelation 8 begins the second half of the Tribulation, known as the great Tribulation, the more intense years of God's wrath. These judgments occur when the seventh and final seal of the scroll is opened (8:1). When the seventh seal is opened, seven angels with trumpets in their hands come from the presence of God, who will avenge the blood of the martyrs in answer to their prayers. An angel will announce each judgment of God by sounding his horn. Four judgments are described in chapter eight and two judgments in chapter nine. These two judgments are called "woe" judgments. They will be just, but unbearably hard on the unbelievers. The seventh trumpet will be sounded in chapter 11.

Aim of the Lesson: Be sure you are saved; then tell others how to be saved from God's wrath.

Give diligence to make your calling and election sure (2 Pet 1:10)
