Grades 1-6

Genesis 15-18

Abraham Promised a Son

1. The Lord promised Abram that He was his shield and his Exceeding great reward. (Genesis 15:1)
2. The Lord showed Abram all the stars of heaven and promised him, "So shall your seed (children) be." (Genesis 15:5)
3. The Lord also promised Abram that He would give him and his seed (children) a land in which they could live. (Genesis 15:17, 18)
4. The Lord promised Abram that he would be "a father of many nations" (Genesis 17:4, 5) and so God changed his name to Abraham.
5. God told Abraham to name his son, "Isaac," and God promised to establish an everlasting covenant with him and his seed (children) after him. (Genesis 17:19)
6. The Lord promised Abraham that Sarah, his wife, would have a son. (Genesis 18:10)
