TRUE or FALSE: Circle the correct answer to the true and false questions below. The numbers in the correct answers are clues to help you solve the three dot-to-dot puzzles at the bottom of the page. Draw a line from the first number given through all of the following numbers until you reach the last number given in the clue. Do not connect this line to the numbers of the next clue. Sometimes numbers in one clue can be used in another puzzle. A word of warning - Beware of the numbers under the wrong answers. They will mislead you and mess up your puzzle. Be sure to use a pencil.

	TRUE	FALSE
1. Paul and Barnabas fled at Lystra and Derbe because they were about to be stoned at Iconium. (14:1, 5-6)	(13-16)	(4-10)
2. There was a man in Lystra who had been crippled through a fall when he was a young man. (14:8)	(28-34)	(11-12)
3. Paul told the crippled man to stand up on his feet and he leaped and walked. (14:10)	(1-4)	(13-15)
4. When the people saw what Paul had done they thought their gods had come down to them in the likeness of men. (14:11)	(23-28)	(18-24)
5. The people even wanted to make a sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas, who they thought were their gods, and the missionaries let them do it. (14:12-18)	(6-15)	(17-22)
6. Later the Jews persuaded the people of Lystra to stone Paul, which they did, and they thought they left him dead. (14:19)	(8-9)	(20-34)
7. Paul's closeness to death caused him to rest from his labors for almost one year. (14:20)	(16-34)	(9-11)
